

Welcome Spring,

On the first warm and sunny spring day, I smile remembering my Uncle Bob reciting the poem attributed to Ogden Nash.

Spring is sprung, the grass is riz.

I wonder where the posies is?

Well, posies are in the Harrisburg area, peeking through with cheerful whites, purples, and yellows of snowdrops, crocuses, and jonquils. Spring has thankfully sprung and I'm smiling.

I have a few favors to ask:

1. We are looking for ideas to make our events enjoyable for attendees. If there are any programs, games, or entertainment you think may add fun to the events, please advise of any suggestions.
2. Thank you to those who have already sent in their 2025 dues.
Each year we have a decline in membership. As a gentle reminder, the $10.00 membership fee supports operating expenses such as record retention, printing, postage, and extras for our events (table decorations, cash raffles, and awards for the golf outing). Please consider renewing your membership.
3. While I am asking for favors, please consider becoming a member of the AMPRA Advisory Board. We have several openings due to retirements. We meet for lunch to manage the operations and plan AMPRA events. The meetings are March, April, May, September, October, and November. If you are interested and would like to come as a guest, please contact a board member or me at jjaffe1994@gmail.com

Enjoy the warm sunny days, we hope to see you May 7th at the Spring Fling.
